NEW HOME FOR THE PANTHERS

UNI To Build New Sports Arena: McLeodUSA Center

McLeodUSA Center • University of Northern Iowa • Cedar Falls, Iowa

Thanks to the largest gift in the school's 124-year history, a new sports arena is on the horizon for the University of Northern Iowa.

Clark and Mary McLeod, on behalf of McLeodUSA, a telecommunications company based in Cedar Rapids, will donate $4 million to help build the new facility on the UNI campus.

According to UNI President Robert D. Koob, this is the lead gift to support construction of the $15 million McLeodUSA Center, which will become the primary performance venue for UNI intercollegiate men's and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling.

"This arena will be the first visible element of a collaboration between UNI and McLeodUSA to promote student excellence," said Koob. "Other elements of this collaboration may include internships, technology enhancements, scholarships and other opportunities."

"UNI is committed to its students and to serving the state of Iowa," said Clark McLeod, chairman and chief executive officer, McLeodUSA. "We have a similar commitment. Our future growth will depend on our ability to attract and retain people who are willing to grow, who value relationships, and who have the passion and commitment to be the best they can be. Iowa needs to keep these people here in the state. We see this gift as an investment. It's an investment in the University of Northern Iowa and it's an investment in future opportunities for all Iowans."

According to UNI Athletic Director, Rick Hartzell, the arena will contain approximately 5,000 to 6,000 seats and will be located on the campus's west side, near the UNI-Dome and Wellness/Recreation Center. Once funds are secured, construction is expected to take approximately 24 to 36 months.

"UNI has some of the best student athletes, coaches and teams of any institution in the Midwest," said Hartzell. "The McLeodUSA Center will be one of the best of its size in the nation; an outstanding facility in which to showcase our quality student athletes and athletic programs."

2000 OUTLOOK

Panthers Picked for Valley Three-peat

It seems the 1999 Panthers made history at nearly every turn. They advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, posted a no. 15 national ranking and compiled a 30-1 record.

Individually, Iradje Ahrabi-Fard was named National Coach of the Year and setter Shannon Perry was the first all-American in school history.

Now, a year after going where no team in conference history had ever gone before, a newer, younger version of the Panthers is set to make the trek to even more history.

A third consecutive conference title would be a first in the Missouri Valley record book and, apparently, others in the league think UNI has the firepower to pull off that trifecta.

The Panthers were tabbed as the preseason favorite by the narrowest of margins in a poll of the coaches over the summer, edging perennial contender Illinois State by a single vote.

Bradley is the choice for third place, followed by Creighton, Southwest Missouri State, Drake, Indiana State, Evansville, Wichita State and Southern Illinois.

Northern Iowa hasn't lost a Valley regular-season match since the 1997 season, a string of 39 matches.

And although the successes of the past two seasons will be hard to match, with some key figures having graduated, plenty of weapons return for the 2000 title defense.

Gone from a year ago are Perry and middle hitters Holly VanHofwegen and Jodi DeVries.

Perry was the most decorated player in school history — two-time conference MVP, school recordholder for career assists, and a second team all-American — and ran the UNI offense to perfection.

VanHofwegen was a two-time first team all-conference pick, led the league in blocks her final two seasons, and was among the national leaders in blocks.

DeVries ranked among the Valley leaders in blocks and hitting percentage her final two seasons and earned all-conference mention as a senior.

And while the returners should give Panther fans plenty of reason to expect a strong defense of their Valley title, some talented freshmen will also be counted on heavily at key positions.

"We have 10 freshmen and sophomores on our roster," Ahrabi-Fard noted, "but this is a very talented team and they're going to have good days. We may not start doing that consistently until the latter part of the season.

"The talent is here, but the maturity and teamwork will take time.

We're going to work hard and keep improving every day, every week. Our upper-classmen are going to be great and our freshmen will surprise people."

Kim Kester

The Panthers will start with an explosive group of offensive weapons, led by first team all-conference performers Alexandra Auken and Kim McCaffrey, both members of the league's preseason team.

Mix in last year's Valley Newcomer of the Year, Kim Kester, and veteran Jeni Scheckloth, who missed last season due to a knee injury, and there should be no shortage of offensive punch.

Auken cemented her spot as one of the best all-around players in the Valley last season, ranking in the top 10 in the league in kills, digs and aces. In addition to first team all-conference honors, she also joined Perry on the all-district team and was the MVP of the conference tournament.

"Alex, as much as her skill and fitness, is the spirit of the team," said Ahrabi-Fard. "She's the best-conditioned person, the best example. The younger players need that person to look to, so we're counting on her leadership quite a bit."

The coach's face lights up when McCaffrey's name is mentioned. After redshirting the previous season, she blossomed into one of the top hitters in the league a year ago. She led the Panthers with a 3.69 kill average and ranked among the best in the conference in hitting, digs and aces.

"As much as Kim took off last year, that's only half of how much more she's going to improve," Ahrabi-Fard said. "Our opponents are going to need to worry about Kim."

When Schneckloth went down for the year with a knee injury in the first game of the season opener at Utah, the Panthers had a big hole to fill. She had emerged as one of their top all-around players the previous season and appeared poised to resume her role.

Enter Kester. The 1998 Iowa High School Player of the Year found herself thrown into the fire to replace Schneckloth just a week into the season. She responded by being named second team all-conference and Valley Newcomer of the Year.

Now, a year later, UNI has Kester with a year of experience under her belt, and a healthy Schneckloth as two more offensive options.

The offense has been turned over to redshirt freshman Jill Arganbright, who takes over at setter for Perry. While she has large shoes to fill, the Panthers are confident Arganbright will take her place in the long line of outstanding Panther setters.

"Jill has all the tools to be as great as any setter we've had," said Ahrabi-Fard. "She blocks better, defenses better...she's smart and very quick. She's comparable to any of the great setters we've had."

Freshman Erin Hirsch, a two-time all-stater, will keep Arganbright on her toes and provide depth at setter.

More depth on the outside will be provided by senior Maya Hirsch, Erin's sister, who also could end up in the middle, and junior Andrea Carlson.

Sophomore Miranda Weber was an outstanding back row specialist in her first season as one of five Panthers to collect over 200 digs.

Youth will be served when it comes to replacing VanHofwegen and DeVries in the middle. Together, they supplied three blocks and over three kills per game last season.

Maya Hirsch will likely battle for playing time with a trio of freshmen – Molly O'Brien, Michelle Burvee and Shari Vermeer.

O'Brien, one of the most sought-after recruits in the nation, is expected to step right into a starting role. She was a dominant high school player who recorded 46 kills in a state tournament match last season.

"Molly's going to be the leader of our middles as a freshman, she'll step in there right away. She's potentially the best middle we've ever had," Ahrabi-Fard said.

When sizing up the Valley race, the Panther coach foresees one of the most competitive seasons in recent memory with Illinois State, Bradley and Creighton most likely to join UNI in the battle for the title.

"People are going to look at us and say we lost three top players and they're right," he said, "but we're going to develop this team as fast as we can and be pretty good by the end of the season."

PANTHER VOLLEYBALL TRADITION

Team Success

In 18 years of Gateway and Missouri Valley Conference competition, Northern Iowa has posted 20 or more victories 15 times, captured eight conference titles, appeared in seven NCAA Tournaments and three N.I.V.C. Tournaments. Just a year ago, UNI advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history and finished 15th in the final national rankings. The Panthers have compiled a 377-83 overall mark in the last 14 years, 176-22 in conference play, and have reached the national top 25 in 1995, 1998 and 1999.

Great Fans

The Panthers have consistently ranked among the national leaders in attendance in recent years. The 1999 home attendance average of 1,472 ranked 15th in the nation. The friendly confines of the West Gym helped the Panthers to a phenomenal 111-5 record at home in the '90s, including a 50-match home winning streak from 1992-96, which ranks fourth in NCAA history.

Excellence in the Classroom

Three UNI players have been named Academic All-Americans a total of six times. Mary Bernhardt was a three-time First Team Academic All-American from 1985-87 while Kate Galer was a First Team pick in 1996 after earning Third Team honors the previous season. Kris Schroeder was honored on the Second Team in 1989. Since the Missouri Valley Conference instituted its academic all-conference squad in 1992, Northern Iowa has had 22 selections to the first team, including four a year ago.

Individual Honors

Conference, region and national honors have become commonplace for UNI players. In the past 15 years, the Panthers have had 55 all-conference selections, including six league players of the year and 30 first team selections. Nine Panthers have been voted to the all-district or all-region team. Setter Shannon Perry became UNI's first-ever all-American in 1999 when she was voted to the AVCA's second team, while head coach Iradje Ahrabi-Fard was named National Coach of the Year by his peers. He also has been named conference Coach of the Year six times and District Coach of the Year twice.

HEAD COACH IRADGE AHRABI-FARD

- 1999 AVCA National Coach of the Year
- District Coach of the Year (1985, 1999)
- Six-time Conference Coach of the Year (1985, 1987, 1994, 1995, 1998, 1999)
- Seven NCAA Tournament appearances
- Inaugural recipient AVCA's Excellence in Education Award (1999)
- 474-137 career record (.776 winning percentage)

The dean of Missouri Valley Conference coaches, Dr. Iradge Ahrabi-Fard begins his 19th season on the Northern Iowa bench.

Since arriving on the scene from his native Iran in 1981, he has established the Panther program as a perennial power in the Midwest and given it national recognition.

With a lifetime of notable coaching achievements already tucked under his belt, Ahrabi-Fard reached the pinnacle of his profession last season, receiving two of the highest honors available to a coach by his peers. He was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association 1999 National Coach of the Year after leading the Panthers to a 30-1 record, no. 15 national ranking and a berth in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

He also received the inaugural AVCA Excellence in Education Award for outstanding ongoing educational contributions to the volleyball community over a number of years.

He was voted District Coach of the Year for the second time in his career and conference Coach of the Year for the sixth time.

The Panther coach has led his teams to seven conference championships -- 1987, '88 and '91 in the Gateway Conference, and 1994, '95, '98 and '99 in the Missouri Valley.

Ahrabi-Fard's teams have chalked up at least 20 victories in 16 of his 18 seasons. He was voted Gateway Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1987, and earned recognition as Midwest Region Coach of the Year by his peers in 1985 and '99. In 1994 and '95, he was voted Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and, in '95, led his team to its first national ranking, finishing 24th in the final poll after the Panthers bowed out of the NCAA Tournament to Stanford in the second round.

Two years ago, he led the Panthers to a 25-3 mark, 18-0 conference record and sixth trip to the NCAA Tournament, where they were defeated by Indiana in the first round. Northern Iowa spent time in the top 25 for the second time and Ahrabi-Fard again was voted Valley Coach of the Year.

But none of Ahrabi-Fard's teams made an impact, both at the conference and national level, like his 1999 squad.

Led by setter Shannon Perry, the first all-American in school history, the Panthers won their first 30 matches and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament before falling to fifth-rated Pacific. They were ranked 15th in the final poll of the season and kept alive winning streaks of 47 regular-season matches and 39 straight conference regular-season contests.

Ahrabi-Fard collected career win no. 400 against Wright State in 1996 in Tempe, Ariz., and needs 26 more to reach the 500-victory plateau. He coached his 600th match at the collegiate level October 22, 1999, in a win over Southwest Missouri State.

The Panthers were without the veteran coach for the 1997 season as he took a leave of absence to serve as a consultant for USA Volleyball and the development of its various teams. Assistant coach Bobbi Petersen headed the program for the season, but Ahrabi-Fard resumed his leadership role at the conclusion of the campaign.

HEAD COACH IRADGE AHRABI-FARD

Under his guidance, the Panthers have posted a 359-74 mark in the 14 seasons he's coached from 1985-99, with eight conference championships, seven NCAA Championship Tournament berths and three National Invitation appearances, including a trip to the N.I.V.C. Final Four in 1993.

A 1965 graduate of UNI, Ahrabi-Fard has long been involved in athletics on the international level. In his native Iran, he served as President of the Institution of Sports from 1967 thru 1969, head swimming coach for the men's and women's national teams from 1967 thru 1970, Executive Director of the Education Department of Sports Ministry in 1970, and Vice-Minister of Sports Ministry from 1977 thru 1978. He also served as special physical educator for the Crown Prince and Princess of Iran.

As an athlete, Ahrabi-Fard competed on the Iranian national volleyball team internationally and in the Asian Games. He also was a high jumper on the national track and field team and competed his freshman year at UNI.

He was a successful high school coach in several sports at Northern University High School in Cedar Falls prior to taking the UNI job, earning various district, regional and state coach of the year honors in volleyball, track and swimming.

Ahrabi-Fard has authored several books on volleyball coaching and is a highly sought-after speaker/clinician throughout the country.

After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education, he received his master's in physical education from UNI in 1966 and his doctorate in physical education and educational administration from Minnesota in 1975.

Ahrabi-Fard and his wife, Hoorvash, reside in Cedar Falls. He also has a daughter, Susann.

COACHING STAFF

Bobbi Petersen
Assistant Coach

One of the greatest players in Northern Iowa volleyball history, Bobbi Petersen is in her sixth season as the top Panther assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

Three years ago, Petersen served as UNI's interim head coach while Iradje Ahrabi-Fard served as a consultant to the U.S. National Team, and led her squad to a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 13-5 mark, 18-9 overall.

As a player at UNI, the former Bobbi Becker was a three-time first team all-conference selection and two-time first team all-region pick. Although it has been 10 years since she last donned a Panther uniform, she still holds four school records and places second in nine other categories.

Her 40 kills in a 1989 match against Illinois State not only is tops in Northern Iowa history, but also stands as the all-time Missouri Valley/Gateway Conference record. A native of Dike, Iowa, Petersen also holds school records for career and season digs with 1,457 and 471, respectively. She compiled 1,611 career kills and a 3.41 career kill average. In 1992, she was voted UNI's Gateway Conference Volleyball Athlete of the Decade.

Petersen earned her bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation in 1990 and her master's from UNI in physical education in 1992. She served as a graduate assistant with the Panthers in 1990 and after completing her master's was employed as a therapeutic recreation specialist in Fort Smith, Ark., and Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Petersen and her husband, Duane, reside in Dike with their twin daughters, Baylee and Sydney, who were born this past February 22.

Annie Dailey
Assistant Coach

Former Central College head coach Annie Dailey is in her third season as a Northern Iowa assistant, having been appointed in July, 1998.

Dailey returned to the coaching ranks after a 10-year hiatus, but brought impressive credentials to the program.

From 1984-86, she compiled a 76-35 record as head coach at Central College in Pella, Iowa, where she led the Flying Dutch to Iowa Conference titles in 1984 and '86 and a runnerup finish in 1985. She was voted the league's coach of the year in 1984.

After leaving Central, Dailey served as an assistant coach at Wartburg College from 1987-88. Her first coaching experience came as an assistant at Albia (Iowa) High School from 1982-83.

She is a 1981 graduate of the University of Iowa, where she lettered on the volleyball team and was named to the Big Ten all-academic team in 1979.

She and her husband, Dave, live in Waterloo with their son, Kody. She also has a daughter, Kristin Harris, who lives in Grundy Center, Iowa.

1999 IN REVIEW -- OH SO SWEET!

They had the fans buzzing all season, from start to finish, and they still had plenty to talk about even when the season was over. For the Northern Iowa Panthers and their fans, 1999 will surely go down as the most memorable volleyball season in school history.

UNI saw its storybook season come to an end on Dec. 10 in Stockton, Calif., where it tasted its first defeat of the year, a 3-0 setback to fifth-ranked Pacific in the East Regional semifinal of the NCAA Tournament. The Panthers' season ended with a 30-1 record, no. 15 national ranking, and their first-ever Sweet 16 berth tucked away in their memories.

In his 18th season, Panther coach Dr. Iradge Ahrabi-Fard reached the pinnacle of his profession by being named National Coach of the Year.

But his wasn't the only honor raked in by UNI. Senior setter Shannon Perry was the first Panther ever to be named All-American by earning a spot on the second team. That accomplishment came on the heels of her becoming the school's career assist leader and being named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year for the second straight time. She also was voted to the All-District 5 team along with teammate Alexandra Auker.

Auker was a first team all-conference selection for the second time along with senior Holly VanHofwegen. They were joined on the first unit by sophomore Kim McCaffrey. Senior Jodi DeVries and freshman Kim Kester were named to the second team while Kester also was voted the Valley's top newcomer.

The Panthers entered their first Sweet 16 as the only undefeated team in the nation and riding a school-record 30-match winning streak. They had defeated Ball State and Indiana a week earlier in the first and second round of the NCAA's, respectively.

The season began on a bittersweet note on Sept. 1 with an impressive 3-0 sweep at Utah, an NCAA Tournament team from the previous year. However, junior outside hitter Jeni Schneckloth, one of the team's top performers, was sidelined for the season in the first game when she tore ligaments in her knee and underwent subsequent surgery.

But the Panthers went on to win their first tournament of the season, the Oregon State Showcase, receiving a challenge only from the host Beavers, who they defeated in five games.

They opened the conference season Sept. 10 at Illinois State, with Kester making her collegiate debut. Original plans had called for the reigning Iowa High School Player of the Year to redshirt, but those plans were scrapped when Schneckloth was injured. The Redbirds were the preseason choice for second place behind the Panthers, but UNI's 3-0 sweep on that night was a preview of the rest of the conference campaign.

UNI cruised through the Valley rarely challenged and finished unbeaten in 18 league matches. In between was a thrilling non-conference victory over Minnesota, which would eventually join UNI in the Sweet 16.

The Panthers went on to host and win the State Farm/Missouri Valley Conference Tournament, Nov. 18-20, and secure their spot as the greatest team in conference history by going undefeated in the league for the second year in a row.

The Panthers first moved into the USA Today/AVCA Top 25 on Sept. 20 at no. 24 and remained in the rankings the rest of the season, topping out at no. 15 in the final poll. It was the fourth season in which UNI had been ranked, but it had never previously ranked higher than 24th nor been in the rankings for more than four weeks. The no. 15 spot is the highest ever by a Missouri Valley Conference team.

Northern Iowa is the first team in conference and school history to go through the regular season undefeated, winning all 26 matches. It also has won 47 straight regular-season matches, 39 consecutive regular-season Valley matches, and 53 of its last 55 overall contests.

The Panthers lost just 15 games all season, and was extended to five games just three times, by 16th-rated Minnesota, Oregon State and Ball State. The 30-match winning streak was the longest in school history and tied for 12th in the NCAA record book.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA

A campus-wide commitment to great teaching lies at the heart of the University of Northern Iowa's reputation for providing exceptional undergraduate education, as well as complementary programs at the master's, specialist's and doctoral levels.

Building on its historic excellence in teacher education, the University has developed outstanding programs in business, natural sciences, humanities and fine arts, and social and behavioral sciences.

UNI's heritage and philosophy place great value on providing a student-centered educational experience. The University's medium size allows it to offer the faculty, facilities and academic choices of a major university, while retaining a friendly, small college atmosphere.

Throughout the years, the University's academic reputation has proven a key factor in landing recognition as one of the top undergraduate institutions in the region.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized the University by ranking it among the best values and most efficient of regional universities in the Midwest. In past years, UNI has been cited by the magazine in other categories such as "best," best buy, "up and coming," and "#1 in academic reputation."

The book, Crime at College: The Student Guide to Personal Safety, credits UNI with having the safest campus/community in the country.

Enrollment on the 860-acre campus stands at about 13,500 students from every county in Iowa, 40 states and 48 foreign countries.

The school was founded in 1876 as the Iowa State Normal School. In 1909, it became Iowa State Teachers College. In 1961, the name was changed to State College of Iowa, and in 1967, the Iowa Legislature acted to change the status of the institution to that of a university under its present title.

While maintaining its heritage in teacher education, the University has continued its metamorphosis toward a multi-purpose institution, with nationally acclaimed programs in many disciplines. UNI's accounting program continues to be ranked among the best in the nation. The College of Business Administration has become the largest undergraduate business school in Iowa and has gained a reputation as one of the finest in the Midwest. Student groups ranging from chemistry to conservation to public relations have been recognized by their respective national groups for the excellence of their programs.

UNI also realizes the value of a liberal arts education and has implemented a rigorous General Education curriculum that equips students with a broad understanding and knowledge of how to apply and acquire new information throughout life.

The University of Northern Iowa has a compact, park-like walking campus located in Cedar Falls, an inviting and historic community of about 35,000 people. Together with the adjacent city of Waterloo, the metropolitan area has a culturally diverse population of 115,000 and combines big city opportunities with small town friendliness. Cedar Falls/Waterloo is a center for industry, finance, commerce, recreation and cultural activities for northeast Iowa.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

The new millennium brings challenges for college sports programs, but the Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics most progressive conferences. Now in its 94th year of existence, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the Conference has been aggressive in the approach to playing host to NCAA basketball championship events, producing a revenue-generating in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to several sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

Under the direction of J. Douglas Elgin, the ninth commissioner in Valley history, The Valley has played host to the 1993, 1998 and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals. In fact, the Missouri Valley Conference plays host to four NCAA basketball championship events in the next five years.

The oldest athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the seeds for the Valley were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who gathered at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

This season, the league will conduct its 90th outdoor track and field championship, its 83rd tennis championship, its 47th baseball tournament and its 63rd men's golf championship. Those programs, plus other current sponsored sports of cross country (42 years), indoor track (34), soccer (10) and swimming and diving (7), have helped solidify the Missouri Valley Conference as one of the most respected conferences nationally.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four and a 1989 national baseball championship. MVC student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the conference's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers which have followed stardom in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The inclusion of women's programs under the Valley banner -- the nation's second-oldest collegiate athletic conference -- has provided an immediate boost. During the 1992-93 academic year, women's athletics were brought under the Valley umbrella for the first time. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

Coach of the Year - Iradge Ahrabi-Fard, Northern Iowa

The 1999-00 academic year was, arguably, one of the greatest seasons in the history of the Missouri Valley Conference. In all, the Valley received a total of five at-large bids to NCAA championships -- two in baseball and one in men's basketball, women's basketball and men's soccer.

In women's volleyball, Northern Iowa -- under the direction of American Volleyball Coaches Association Coach of the Year Iradge Ahrabi-Fard -- finished 15th in the final AVCA poll and became the first Missouri Valley Conference school to advance to the NCAA volleyball "Sweet Sixteen."

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference will always continue to be pro-active in its approach.

Members of the Conference include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, Southwest Missouri State University and Wichita State University.
